3.2 A reference in this policy to a code of conduct, policy or procedures is a reference to the code of conduct, policy or procedures as amended or replaced by the College from time to time.

4. Commitment to pastoral care

- 4.1 Pastoral care is the provision made for the physical, emotional, social, moral, academic and spiritual wellbeing of students. Pastoral care at the College focuses on the overall development of each student and enhancement of the dignity of each person. It nurtures success and promotes forgiveness, tolerance and reconciliation. Central to the provision of pastoral care at the College is the College's belief in the inherent value and worth of each individual.
- 4.2 The College acknowledges that students respond to genuine praise and positive recognition. The College also recognises that learning best takes place in an environment that is supportive and caring, encourages risk-taking and values and meets the needs of each individual student. This positive approach greatly contributes to the enhancement of students' self esteem. Students who have a positive self-concept and good self-esteem feel worthy, valued and resilient and are ready to succeed.
- 4.3 The College, in partnership with parents, will encourage scholarship by:
 - (a) stimulating an interest in learning;
 - helping each student to achieve to the limits of their own abilities; (b)
 - teaching each student effective study habits; (C)
 - (d) fostering rational and independent inquiry; and
 - carefully guiding each student as they acquire a strong foundation of knowledge and skills. (e)
- 4.4 The College will develop character by:
 - encouraging the ideal of service and an active concern for others; (a)

- (b) encouraging mutual respect and trust by communicating openly, appropriately and with integrity; and
- fostering leadership and self-discipline. (C)
- 4.5 The College will assist students to develop self-awareness, an understanding of human nature and a sense of purpose in life by:
 - (a) promoting an atmosphere of acceptance and tolerance within the College;
 - developing, through study and free inquiry, an appreciation of the meaning and influence of the (b) Christian faith and other great world religions; and
 - (C) encouraging participation in worship.
- 4.6 Students at the College will be actively encouraged to participate in the many opportunities that are provided, both within the classroom and through the College's rich co-curricular program. The College aims to nurture the talents and capacities of each student and to recognise their efforts and achievements. As students develop and mature, the College will seek to guide students towards becoming self-motivated and life-long learners.
- 4.7 The College will encourage students to understand and value others and work cooperatively and will guide them towards stable and satisfying interpersonal relationships. All students are unique. The College aims to encourage them to be individuals and to view their uniqueness as an asset.

5. Providing pastoral care

- 5.1 The College gives its students access to multiple adults in their school life, who show interest and concern in them, helping them to feel valued and respected. All staff are responsible for the pastoral care of students in their care.
- 5.2 The first and key adult in a student's school life is their class teacher. In addition to their teaching responsibilities, the class teacher is responsible for students' day-to-day pastoral care.
- 5.3 As a student progresses through their education at the College, their Head of House and their Mentor are the key adults who can provide them with additional support and pastoral care.
- 5.4 Other specialist staff also have responsibility for supporting the pastoral care of students. These staff include:
 - (a) learning enhancement teachers and teachers' aides;
 - (b) teacher librarians;
 - (C) language conversation tutors;
 - (d) music peripatetic teachers;
 - (e) external co-curricular coaches; and
 - (f) reception, administrative and operational staff.
- 5.5 The College encourages these staff to develop strong relationships with the students, so that any difficulties experienced by a student are identified early and managed appropriately.
- 5.6 There are a number of staff who have specific responsibility for supporting the pastoral care of students. These staff have incidental contact with all students and are available to support classroom and specialist teachers. They are the:
 - chaplains; and (a)
 - (b) school counsellors.

- 5.7 The members of the College's management team are responsible for leadership and for the care of the students, as a student body. They also serve as a key nexus between the pastoral care of students and the College's behaviour management processes, to support students in developing and demonstrating responsible behaviours at all times.
- 5.8 The staff mentioned above in this clause 5 work cooperatively with each other and with each student and their family, to achieve the best possible outcomes. The College aims for this to occur in an open and transparent manner, ensuring that all key people in a student's life share relevant information, while appropriately respecting privacy.

6. Students with special needs

- 6.1 Students with special needs are students who have learning disabilities, behaviour disorders, or other disabilities or conditions as a result of which they need assistance to learn.
- 6.2 The College will work with parents, teachers, students, community members and relevant professionals to identify and meet the needs of students with special needs.
- 6.3 Pastoral care for students with special needs will be provided by:
 - (a) school counsellors;
 - (b) careers advisers:
 - (C) teachers;
 - the Head of Learning Enhancement and team: (d)
 - disability education partners; (e)
 - (f) consultants:
 - Heads of House and Mentors; and (g)
 - (h) Heads of Department.

7. Behaviour management

- 7.1 To assist in facilitating a supportive, positive and affirming environment, it is important to set and enforce expectations, both academic and behavioural. The College has a strong focus on teaching students the appropriate behaviours in different contexts and areas of school life. The College's expectations are set out in its Student Code of Conduct, Student Diversity and Equality of Opportunity Policy, Student Social Media Policy, and Student Use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) Policy, and teachers explicitly teach students the appropriate way to behave.
- 7.2 All behavioural issues will be managed on a case-by-case basis, to meet the needs of the student. The College's core values of respect, openness, flexibility, support, care and belief in the dignity and self-worth of the individual will apply and will be balanced against what is best for other students and members of the College community.
- 7.3 The table in Schedule 4 sets out the rights and responsibilities for students at Wyvern. The rights and responsibilities for students at Lindfield are incorporated in Schedule 5. Both of these schedules are guided and bound by the principles in clauses 7.1 to 7.6 and clauses 9.4 to 9.7. The schedules were created under the framework of a rights and responsibilities model that is explicit and very similar between the two campuses. The schedules have been created internally by the staff who manage them and represent the different campuses. Whilst the sanction levels may not be exactly parallel they are broadly similar between the campuses.
- 7.4 Most students demonstrate appropriate behaviour, however some students find themselves in trouble unintentionally, because they are not familiar with the College's expectations in different situations. Other students make poor choices, for which there are consequences. The purpose of these consequences is to teach and encourage the students to make more positive choices in the future.

- 7.5 The College will manage inappropriate student behaviour, including conduct that constitutes misconduct, in accordance with this policy. The College manages serious misconduct in accordance with its Student Discipline Policy and Procedures.
- 7.6 The College expressly prohibits the use of corporal punishment under any circumstances. The College does not explicitly or implicitly sanction the administration of corporal punishment by people outside school, including parents, to enforce discipline at the school.

8. Rewarding positive behaviour

- 8.1 Recognising positive behaviour is important in the development of good character and in promoting the values of the College. The table in Schedule 1 provides descriptions and examples of positive student behaviour.
- 8.2 Teachers should use the appropriate merit or house system to acknowledge examples of positive behaviour in the classroom, in co-curricular activities, around the campus and in the wider community. Other affirming strategies may include recognition of achievement at assemblies, newsletters, social media, at lines, in classrooms or at the Annual Prize Giving, and through direct feedback to parents and students as in a diary note, email message, phone call or meeting.

9. Consequences for poor behaviour

- 9.1 The tables in Schedule 2 list possible consequences for poor behaviour at Stanmore.
- 9.2 The table in Schedule 3 lists possible consequences for poor behaviour at Wyvern.
- 9.3 The table in Schedule 5 lists possible consequences for poor behaviour at Lindfield.
- 9.4 Where possible, poor behaviour should be managed by the teacher and classroom management strategies should be employed before escalating to the consequences listed in Schedule 2, Schedule 3 and Schedule 5 as relevant.
- 9.5 The levels of behaviour and expected consequences are indicative only. All teachers should decide on the consequences that they consider appropriate to a given situation. When in doubt, teachers should seek advice from the Deputy Pastoral (K-12), Director of Students, Head of Campus, Deputy Head of Campus, Head of House or Head of Year 7, as relevant.
- 9.6 When a teacher or other staff member considers that a student's conduct may constitute serious misconduct, they should consult with the Head of Campus, Head of House, Head of Department and/or the Director of Students, Deputy Pastoral (K-12), as appropriate, for possible management under the Student Discipline Policy and Procedures.
- 9.7 Teachers are encouraged to speak with the student's parents and, where relevant, their Mentor.

10. Failure to complete academic work (Y7-Y12)

- 10.1 For students in Y7-Y12, failure to complete academic work to the expected standard is addressed differently to the other behaviours listed in Schedule 2. The College will run catch-up classes separately from behavioural detentions.
- 10.2 Students must attend catch-up class on the first available day. (Catch-up classes will take priority over co-curricular commitments) If work is submitted to the relevant teacher before the scheduled catch-up class, the teacher may, in their discretion, record it as complete and the student will not be required to attend. Referral to catch-up class will be retained on the student's record.

- 12.1 Parents play an integral part in the maintenance of appropriate behaviour.
- 12.2 Parents will generally be notified of behavioural issues via the student's diary, but email may also be used.
