ARTWORK – THE SPEAR AND THE WHALE

Developed in 2021 for Newington College Reconciliations week. These symbols were used by Gadigal people and are found around Sydney in sandstone today.

GUNANG

Spear
Used in battle

DAMARA

Hands
Represents connection to land and each other

GAWURA

Whale
A symbol of the Dreaming of Gadigal people and connection to the nearby sea

BUUMARANG

Boomerang
Used in hunting and battle

NGALAYA

This word from the language of the Eora Nation translates to mean “ally” and “friend in battle”. It was chosen by the Indigenous students of Newington without any influence from anyone else. We chose this word because we know that everyone who purchases from the Newington College Blak Douglas range is now an ally, accepting responsibility to support their indigenous brothers and sisters
